The Course

Managers today often find themselves balancing the need for getting the job done quickly, perhaps with fewer people, with the need for building working relationships that span barriers of time, distance, and culture, to name just a few. For many managers, this is unfamiliar territory that requires a new way of thinking about how to lead people. If this situation sounds familiar, this workshop is for you.

The workshop builds skills in two areas vital to the success of a virtual team: distance management and team leadership. By combining theory with experiential exercises, participants develop the skills required to meet the demands of the constantly changing global work environment.

The Goals

By the end of the course, the delegates will learn:

- How to manage performance virtually
- How to choose teams virtually
- How leaders can develop their virtual presence
- How to analyze personal growth virtually
- How to work with virtual teams
- How to use the tools of virtual management
- How to develop trust virtually

- How to work with different cultures in the virtual space

The Process

This program utilizes experiential learning techniques with case studies, presentations, video segments and team building exercises to strengthen the learning environment.

The Benefits

- Concrete strategies for overcoming obstacles to virtual management
- New skills and tools required to lead across boundaries
- The ability to match technology to communication needs
- Increased commitment through awareness of potential cross-cultures
- Positive relationships as a result of setting compatible expectations.
- The distinction between traditional and virtual leadership skills, competencies, and attitudes needed to motivate workers across boundaries
- Strategies to overcome or lessen the challenges to managing virtually
- Factors critical to the success of a virtual environment
- How to match leadership style to the stages of the virtual team
- How to integrate multi-cultural considerations into thinking and decision making
- How to build and rebuild trust under adverse conditions

The Results

- Create a team environment despite challenges from geography, time zones and culture.
- Build trust with people from a distance
- Assess team performance from a distance
- Review the benefits and challenges of working in various distant locations and with other organizations to deliver services and projects.
- Understand the different cultures and how to use these to adjust your leadership style

- Understand your own leadership style and consider how this understanding might be used to improve relationships you have with others on a local and global basis
- Understand how effectively you lead currently and your situational leadership style
- Practice flexing your style of leading and communicating to appeal to varying audiences with differing expectations and preferences

The Scandinavian Academy for Training Center adopts the latest scientific and professional methodologies in training and human resource development, aiming to enhance the efficiency of individuals and organizations. Training programs are delivered through a comprehensive approach that includes:

- Theoretical lectures supported by PowerPoint presentations and visual materials (videos and short films).
- Scientific evaluation of participants before and after the program to measure progress and knowledge acquisition.
- Brainstorming sessions and practical role-playing to simulate real-life scenarios.
- Case studies tailored to align with the training content and participants work nature.
- Assessment tests conducted at the end of the program to evaluate the achievement of training objectives.

Each participant receives the training material (both theoretical and practical) in printed form and saved on a CD or flash drive. Detailed reports, including attendance records, final results, and overall program evaluations, are also provided.

Training materials are prepared professionally by a team of experts and specialists in various fields. At the end of the program, participants are awarded a professional attendance certificate, signed and accredited by the Scandinavian Academy for Training Center.

Program Timings:

- 9:00 AM to 2:00 PM

The program includes:

- A daily buffet provided during the sessions to ensure participants comfort.
- A closing ceremony on the final day to distribute certificates and celebrate participants achievements.
